

2023 Counter-Terrorism Week

SIDE EVENTS

22 June 2023 • 8:00-9:30am ET

INVITATION

The Battle of the Bytes: Confronting the Dark Side Generative AI and the Prospect of Its Malignant Use for Terrorist Purposes

Generative AI has rapidly gained popularity, becoming a powerful tool in various domains. However, it also can also present significant threats to our society, including through the spread of false information, manipulation of public opinion, and the incitement of violence.

This Side-Event brings together industry experts and law enforcement and counter-terrorism practitioners to better understand the threats and strategies to mitigate the risks associated with the use of generative AI for terrorist purposes.
